Step up and take charge.

To tackle the demands and pressures of today's increasingly complex health care system, health system leaders must continuously invest in their development and in new ways of thinking. In order to keep up with increasing demands, health leaders need to innovate, realize the promise of new technologies and lead change as never before.

Over five days you will increase your effectiveness in driving improvements within your organization as you interact and build relationships with leaders from across the system.

Your trusted partner.

Canada's leading centre for health care leadership development, the Rotman School of Management has unique expertise in developing health leadership and management effectiveness. This program focuses on providing you with actionable management tools and a proven change management framework used by health providers, life science firms, and major corporations.

We're here to help.

At Rotman we believe in learning that is immediately applicable inside the organization and that lasts long after the program is complete. That means enhancing your leadership and management effectiveness with actionable management tools.

During each day of the program, you will increase your self-awareness as a leader and build a personalized leadership agenda that brings you closer to your goals and the needs of your organization.
